Office of the Attorney General
Center Consumer Protection Division
NW 200 St. Paul Place
Baltimore, MD 21202

To Whom It May Concern:

Pursuant to Section 14-3501 of the Common Law of Maryland, we are writing to notify you of an event in which a third party or parties may have obtained unauthorized access to personal information involving 1 Maryland resident.

We recently learned that personal information contained on paper may have been stolen during transportation to a shredding facility. The personal information which was obtained may have included name, Social Security Number, Driver's License number, and account number.

We have notified our affected customer by writing. In addition, we have offered to transfer the funds in their affected accounts to a new account free of charge, and also offered two years of free credit monitoring. A copy of our customer notification letter is enclosed for your reference.

This notice is being provided to the Center Consumer Protection Division of the Maryland Attorney General's Office. If you need any further information, please contact: N. Patrice Brusko, Chief Privacy Officer, TD Bank, N.A., 9000 Atrium Way, Mount Laurel, NJ 08054 or Patrice.brusko@td.com.

Sincerely,
